

OCT
9

OCTOBER 9, 2022
Evening of Poetry

Obed Silva, professor of Literature, East LA College; students and friends will share their original poetry. Some of the shared written words are inspired by the history learned of St. Isidore's. Following intermission there will be an open mic. Bring your creative writing and share (3-5 minutes.)

NOV
13

NOVEMBER 13, 2022
Celebrating Veterans Day

The tradition to celebrate Veterans Day at St. Isidore Historical Plaza continues. Bring a flag, your American pride and shout HURRAY as we celebrate the courage and our gratitude to local Veterans and Soldiers. Remember Freedom isn't free. Light lunch will be provided.

DEC
11

DECEMBER 11, 2022
Feast Day of the Virgin of Guadalupe

Join us as we pray the Rosary and sing songs of praise to the Patron Saint of the Americas, Mexico, Orange County and Unwed Mothers. This celebration will take place the day before her actual Feast day on 12/12. Afterwards, enjoy Champurado and Pan Dulce in the Hall.

Join us for the FREE "2nd Sunday in the Chapel" series of educational, artistic and / or cultural presentations.

NOTE: May is NOT the "2nd Sunday."

Interested in supporting St. Isidore Historical Plaza?

- Attend an event;
- Buy a brick; Make a donation;
- Rent our venue for your next event;
- Volunteer your talent and professional skills;
- Become a member and receive updates on events;
- Join the Isidorians who plan and carry out fund raisers;
- Apply for our Board and be involved in decision making;
- Share your "story" of St. Isidore and submit it as we continue to collect our history
- Your support is appreciated.
- Thank you!

2022 Fundraising to restore stain glass windows.
Thank you for your donations!

ST. ISIDORE HISTORICAL PLAZA

FREE! 2022 Second Sundays in the Chapel 3-5 p.m.

Proceeds go to the preservation and restoration of St. Isidore Historical Plaza
The Plaza is a non-profit organization 501c(3) EIN#33-0865721

10961 Reagan St. • Los Alamitos, CA 90720
562-596-9918 • Visit us on Facebook or www.stisidorehistoricalplaza.org

JAN
9

JANUARY 9, 2022
"Encuentro de Almas" with C&C

CANCELED & RESCHEDULED

Candi Sosa and Cristina Rebull are seasoned professionals who first united their voices singing Cuban and American music in 2014. They've performed throughout the US and Mexico. They'll welcome the New Year in the Chapel singing from their heart and soul. Join us for this Soul Encounters with C&C.

APR
10

APRIL 10, 2022
St. Isidore Historical Plaza Past. Present Future.

Hear how a group of local residents in 1999 came together as "Comité del Amor" with the goal to Open the Doors to St. Isidore Catholic Church. Learn how this group evolved and with divine intervention was able to purchase the property known as St. Isidore Historical Plaza. And how recently it was granted status as a National Historical Landmark. Together we achieved a dream to preserve the past, acknowledge the present and gift St. Isidore Historical Plaza to future generations.

JUL
10

JULY 10, 2022
Water Conservation: Succulent Gardens & Rain Barrels

California has been in a drought for the past years. Learn about Native plants and rain barrels. International Rain Barrels will sell 50 gallons barrels for $65 with a $35 rebate (2 max.) offered by the Water Co. Bring a pot and plant a succulent. Plants & soil will be provided.

FEB
13

FEBRUARY 13, 2022
Los Alamitos High School Jazz Band

Los Alamitos Unified School District Music students fill the chapel with the sounds of jazz. A distinct American style of music developed in the early 20th century and characterized by improvisation, syncopation, individual expression and a regular or forceful rhythm. Join us and hear the sounds of the Award winning LAUSD High School Jazz Band.

MAY 15

MAY 15, 2022
St. Isidore Feast Day. Who Was St Isidore?

Who was St. Isidore? Why did the parishioners who built the Chapel select Isidro de Merlo y Quintana to name it after? Come learn about him and why he was canonized a Catholic Saint in 1622. And why we celebrate his Feast day on May 15. Learn interesting facts about the Chapel and St. Isidore. And why he is widely celebrated in other countries.

AUG
14

AUGUST 14, 2022
Gabrieleño Band of Mission Indians

Before the Portuguese and Belgium dairy farmers resided in Los Alamitos there were people living on the land. Meet descendants of the Gabrieleño tribe who lived in harmony with the land. Hear their stories and learn their culture. The injustices and their survival should never be forgotten.

MAR
13

MARCH 13, 2022
LA OPERA: St. Matthews Passion

Bach's St. Matthew Passion is considered by many to be the single greatest masterpiece of western sacred music. Learn about the Arias choreograph in ballet that depict the final days of the life of Jesus. Limited discounted tickets available for the 3/20 matinee. (If interested, call the Office) Following the presentation Maria Dominique Lopez and (?) will perform.

JUN
12

JUNE 12, 2022
"Encuentro de Almas" with C&C

Candi Sosa & Cristina Rebull are seasoned professionals who first united their voices singing Cuban and American music in 2014. They've performed throughout the US and Mexico. They'll welcome the New Year in the Chapel singing from their heart and soul. Join us for this Soul Encounters with C&C.

SEP
11

SEPTEMBER 11, 2022
Arts & Crafts. See. Buy. Make.

Browse and buy local arts and crafts. Learn about the creative process used by Artist and Crafters. Discover your creative self and select a craft to make and take. This event will take place after The Art & Wine Tasting.*
*See the website for information on purchasing tickets to this event.